—Many of our citizens are shooting robins. They had better look a little out, as this is a violation of the law, and there is a strict penalty. We will publish something on this next week.

The Boatman Came.
The Sentinel feels greatly grieved to hear of the death of the beloved wife of H. B. Lawrence, which occurred at her home in Union township, near Craig, on Monday of this week, July 2, 1917, in the 75th year of her age. While Mrs. Lawrence had been in feeble health for some time, her death was sudden and the end came peacefully to this noble wife, beloved mother and kindly neighbor. She belonged to that class of pioneer women who did her part nobly and well in helping to develop that part of Hot Springs, and in her passing the people lose one who was ever ready to advance all things that tended to the betterment of the social fabric.</
